CUSL Guide (SS 2020): Registration and Participation in CUSL Online Courses

1. COURSE REGISTRATION

In order to participate in SS 2020 CUSL courses, you are required to first register for the respective course via KLIPS. If you run into issues with your KLIPS course registration, please send an email to us-recht@uni-koeln.de, including the name of the course you would like to register for, your full name and your matriculation number.

2. COURSE PARTICIPATION

After completing the mandatory course registration via KLIPS, ILIAS is used as the main online learning platforms:

For the following courses, ILIAS is used as the digital learning platform for course materials and discussion forums etc.:

⇒ US Civil Procedure (Professor Junker)
⇒ US Tort Law (Mr. Kraski)
⇒ US Intellectual Property Law (Mr. Schramm)
⇒ International Environmental Law (Professor Junker)
⇒ US Criminal Law and Procedure (Mr. Owens)
⇒ US Contract Law (Dr. Wilder)
⇒ Drafting Contracts (Dr. Wilder)
⇒ Lawyering Skills (Dr. Wilder)
⇒ US Constitutional Law: Individual Rights (Dr. Wilder)
⇒ Introduction to US Law and Terminology (Dr. Wilder)

You will automatically gain access to the respective ILIAS course folder after course registration via KLIPS. Each lecturer will provide course materials to participants via this platform. These can include, among others, recorded lectures, audio-guided video presentations, Zoom meetings and guided self-study materials and reading materials.
